

Testimonial

I would gladly recommend Ian Young to any individual or organisation with a need for a comedy act. Ian always handles his role from start to finish with relevant and well-rehearsed content in a professional and entertaining fashion. Ian's wide range of knowledge in entertainment allows him to understand his audience in such a way that ensures he maintains the room energy throughout his performances. He has delivered good performances at the Melville Comedy Club and his growth in the industry has been admirable thus far.
